Becoming a New Bride

Ann Mody Lewis, Ph.D., has been a mental health counselor for twenty one years. She is the founder and owner of A. Lewis & Associates, P.A., a Center for Mental Health in Ft. Lauderdale, FL. She is the author and founder of Women's Journey, Inc. There is a 'bride' in every woman. It is the romanticized notion of her life that began the day she was born and grows in intensity as she matures. The 'Old Bride' is selfless and conflicted about the multiple pressures that expect her to be selfless and self-fulfilled at the same time. The 'New Bride' has reconciled these conflicts through her understanding of socialization and its comprehensive affects on her sacred life. She emerges as a 'New Bride' and is undaunted by conflict because she has made peace with her power... now she is a woman and goddess. With the skillful use of film, lecture, and group dynamics, Ann will lead you into the endless journey of self-transformation.
